- Not Changing the schedule but proposing to add a zero hour
  - To accommodate students who work
  - Aide in functional capacity of the buildings (staggering start times)
  - Provide more opportunities for tutoring, recovery and acceleration
  - Provides better opportunities for extra-curricular activities before and after school
- 45 minute planning period every day plus 90 minutes every other day
- The 90 minute planning period would include assigned instructional duties
- Most zero hour courses would be upper level
- Teacher work days would be either 7:00-3:00 or 8:00-4:00
- Seniors would take 6 classes if they are on schedule to graduate
