

Gresham-Barlow School District:

Under statute, the District must return the attached form to Multnomah County Elections no later than July 7, 2025.

ORS 255.295 requires Multnomah County Elections to send your District an official abstract of the votes cast in Gresham-Barlow School District contests for the May 20, 2025 Special District Election. The District must canvass (carefully review) the official abstract, confirm which candidates received the most votes, and verify that those candidates are qualified to hold the offices to which they have been elected. The District must affirm the results of the election in writing to Multnomah County Elections for us to issue certificates of election for the winners.

Elected board members cannot take office until the certificates of election have been issued. We will mail the certificates of election to you after we receive your completed form.

To fulfill your District's obligations under ORS 255.295, the person(s) authorized by your District must canvass the abstract of votes attached to the email accompanying this letter, then complete and return the form on the following page to Multnomah County Elections. Email a scanned copy of the form to Kali Odell at kali.odell@multco.us or mail it to Multnomah County Elections at 1040 SE Morrison St., Portland, OR 97214.

To assist with reviewing candidates' qualifications, Multnomah County Elections affirms the following based on candidates' voter registration records:

- Brenna Puderbaugh has been an active registered voter in Gresham-Barlow School District since June 22, 2024, and is currently registered at 281 SW Lillyben Ave, Gresham OR 97080. At the time of filing, the candidate provided a copy of a partial bank statement indicating residency at the current voter registration address since May 3, 2024. That document is attached to the accompanying email.
- Holly Riegelmann has been an active registered voter in Gresham-Barlow School District since before May 20, 2024, and is currently registered at 33601 SE Lusted Rd., Gresham OR 97080.
- Blake Petersen has been an active registered voter in Gresham-Barlow School District since before May 20, 2024, and is currently registered at 670 SE Centurion Ave., Gresham, OR 97080.
- Heather Coleman-Cox has been an active registered voter in Gresham-Barlow School District since before May 20, 2024, and is currently registered at 4090 SE Augusta Loop, Gresham OR 97080.
