

Physical Restraint

A student will be restrained when his or her behavior presents as imminent danger of serious physical harm to the student or others, other less restrictive and intrusive measures have been tried and were ineffective, there is no known medical contravention to the student and staff members applying the restraint have been trained in its safe application (ISBE 23 IAC 1.285).