Dear Todd,

We're so glad to be working with you for your upcoming Washington, DC and Williamsburg Tour. Educators consistently choose GL due to our unwavering commitment to customer experience. We know the importance of providing your students with a memorable, educational trip.

Established by a former teacher, GL Travel understands that your attention is dedicated to your students and their education. That's precisely why we take care of all the intricate details and simplify the planning process for you.

Here are a few of the ways that GL Travel stands out from the competition:

- Safety and Security: We understand safety is the top priority when planning student travel. Therefore, we provide nighttime security at your hotel, assign a dedicated professional tour manager to each bus, and include health and accident insurance in the package price.
- Exceptional Tour Directors: Explore your destination with the industry's finest tour guides, backed by our unwavering commitment to customer service excellence.
- Top Value Provided: GL Travel is sure to provide the best quality at a great price, enabling more students to be able to participate.

We look forward to supporting you in planning a phenomenal trip for your students. Once you've reviewed the proposal, let's set up a time to review everything in more detail. If everything looks good, we will start your trip plans immediately once the agreement has been signed.

Your perfect trip partner,

The Crew at GL Travel

HOW WE CAN HELP

Our team is committed to making this year and next year's trip the one your students talk about for decades. We handle the details so that you can avoid the stress of trip planning. When a trip is delivered to your satisfaction you have the peace of mind knowing you've given your students the very best.

Here's the plan that we have implemented so that your trip meets its goals.
