MVPs

The Big Dog Challenge winners have completed exploring the feasibility and viability of their ideas. They have completed the necessary research such as: defining the problem, developing a hypotheses, identifying solutions, naming the customer, value proposition, and identifying partners.

The projects are now ready to develop Experiments or Minimal Viable Products (MVPs) to test their ideas. The projects teams will meet with ignite! Innovation on February 14th to create MVPs.

The Big Dog Challenge winners are listed below:

- Composting Cafeteria Waste: Marlene Goenner, Terrence Zerwas, Melissa Dumonceaux, Sue Hiltner
- Math Personalization: Jason Miller, Lisa Fischer, Nicole Wentland
- Student Support: Heather Eigen, Margaret Smude, Shelly Clemen, Hillary Johnson, Shanna Seguire
- Design Thinking/Project Based Learning Experiences: Tracy Hare, Jason Miller, Charlie Zimmer, Jen Feierabend
- Handicapped Ramp For Primary Playground: Judee Vesledahl, Erika Rusin, Dale Christensen

Congratulations to our Innovation Teams for making it to MVPs!
