ASSOCIATION OF ILLINOIS RURAL AND SMALL SCHOOLS
COMMITTED TO THE RURAL ADVANTAGE

AIRSS is excited about our partnership with Journey12. Each week we will provide you the link to the newest podcast you can share with your guidance counselor, students and parents. Listen here.

Journey12 is offering AIRSS members — at no direct cost — an opportunity to have their own school-facing podcast focused on the college admissions process. Get started - sign up today.

A Podcast for College Admissions Strategies

This Week's Podcast: The Different Flavors of Public Universities

When most students think of where they'll go to college, many immediately consider the three schools with which they're most familiar: their state flagship school, their regional university, and their community college. I'm going to talk about those first two today. We covered Community College pretty thoroughly a few episodes back, so we'll leave that option out of today's discussion. For many students, these schools are outstanding fits for all kinds of excellent reasons. But just like any other collegiate consideration, there are pros AND cons. We're going to examine them here.

2021 Membership Forms are available now! Don't forget...

AIRSS stands as the only support and advocacy organization in the state of Illinois solely focused on rural and small schools. All defined rural schools and districts are considered members and all advocacy work is done on behalf of all members.

The collective strength of AIRSS voice is in the individual strength of our rural and small schools. Your challenge is to encourage new members, keep current with our support and know that AIRSS is fighting on your behalf.
