Total number of students advised on the Wharton campus only since September 2022 to date are: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>▪ Career Advising – 987</li> <li>▪ Financial Literacy Advising – 717</li> <li>▪ Academic Advising – 1525</li> <li>▪ Transfer Advising – 998</li> <li>▪ Scholarships – 368</li> </ul> 45 students from WCJC attended the Career Fair and 46 students attended the University Transfer Fair held on the Wharton campus in fall 2022. Over 200 community and high school students also attended.
4.	College Readiness Reading/Writing (Phyllis Appling) (handout attached) Phyllis was unable to attend; however, a handout was provided which included comparison data on College Readiness Reading/Writing enrollment and success rates for AY 2019-2020 through AY 2022-2023. Hiring process underway to fill vacant positions. Phyllis will retire at the end of the academic year. T.K. Krpec will replace her as Dept. Head beginning fall 2023.
5.	College Readiness Math (Jennifer Mauch) (handout attached) Jennifer provided a handout and reviewed comparison data on enrollment and success rates for College Readiness Math for AY20 through Spring 2023. To help better prepare students not college ready in Math, MATH 0306 – Basic Mathematics for College will be added to the course schedule and NCBM 0208 – Support Course for Beginning Algebra will be deleted; effective fall 2023.
6.	Continuing Education (Danny Bacot) (handout attached) Danny reported that the CE department is fully staffed. He provided an update on CE programs, enrollment, and corporate training projects. Due to staffing issues, Kids’ College will not be held this summer. The plan is to transition the Kids’ College program under the umbrella of the recruiting area. Kids’ College is scheduled to resume in summer 2024 and will be offered on the Wharton campus.
7.	Dean of Vocational Instruction (Don Smith) (handout attached) Don was unable to attend; however, he provided a handout with information on staffing, new Level I certificates, program accreditation updates, and Perkins.
8.	Distance Education (Michele Betancourt) (handout attached) Michele was unable to attend; however, she provided a handout with information on Brightspace, student/faculty/staff training, online course evaluation, accessibility compliance and trainings, and a new process for new and separated employees. Faculty, staff, and student trainings and videos are being updated. Lac reported that solutions for ongoing issues with ILP (bridge between Banner and Brightspace) are being pursued and will hopefully be resolved by fall.
9.	GPS (Sara Fira) Sara was unable to attend the meeting. Dean McPherson stated a GPS meeting is scheduled for Friday on Meta Majors. No new updates to report.
10.	Library Dr. Christy Ruby accepted the position for Director of Library Information and Technical Support Services. She will start July 17, 2023.

11.	Dual Credit (Natalie Stavinoha)  Natalie reported that 1344 students from 15 area schools have enrolled in dual credit courses for a total of 6,457 SCH for AY22-23. Several high school seniors are on track to graduate with an AA degree; 12 students from Wharton ROAR Academy and two from Bay City HS. One student from Tidehaven HS will earn the Health Data Analyst Level I Certificate. An additional 175 ISD seniors have completed a minimum of 15 SCH of dual credit and will receive honor cords from WCJC to wear for their HS graduation ceremony. As part of the PTECH (Pathways in Technology Early College HS), Wharton HS has 10 returning seniors and 16 juniors scheduled to take welding classes on the Wharton campus in fall 2023. Bay City HS has approximately 70 students in their early college program. SACSCOC approved the substantive change to increase course offerings at Needville and Bay City HS. Biology and Psychology courses will be added to the list of courses offered at Needville HS for fall 2023. BIOL lecture will be via online and the lab will be face-to-face. Meetings are ongoing with area high school juniors and seniors to discuss dual credit courses and how they transfer to universities. A meeting to discuss dual credit opportunities with Lamar ISD is scheduled for next week.
12.	Senior Citizens (Traci Myers) (handout attached)  Traci was unable to attend; however, a handout was provided which included information on congregate and meals on wheels (home delivered meals). The program currently services Wharton, El Campo, Eagle Lake, Columbus, and Weimar. The BOT recently approved a salary increase from $7.25/hr. to $8.25/hr. for all PT Senior Citizen positions. The program has struggled to hire and retain PT employees, mostly due to low compensation. The City of Columbus is selling the Mansfield Library in Colorado county where the WCJC Sr. Citizen program has been housed. The search is underway for a new site and a site manager.
13.	Student Success (Lindsey McPherson)  Lindsey reported that the assigned advising process, part of the QEP, is working well. The Academic Alerts process, also part of the QEP, has proven to be successful; however, very few faculty have utilized the academic alert system. Amber is working on a campaign to spotlight success stories and encourage faculty to submit academic alerts. The Facilitated Learning Centers in Richmond, Sugar Land, and Wharton have merged with the computer labs at each campus. A full-time learning facilitator will be hired for each center. Tutors will be cross trained to provide computer support. Options to replace SmartThinking are being discussed since the company will no longer offer tutoring services. The goal is to have a new tutoring platform implemented for fall 23. Renovations will begin after graduation at the Richmond campus to add a Career and Transfer Advising Center. The renovations will be funded by the Title V grant. The TRiO Annual Performance Report has been submitted for AY22-23. The goals of the grant were met very early in fall 2022. TRiO staff work independently and collaboratively with academic advising to provide services to eligible students with advising and course selection, FAFSA assistance, financial literacy, and academic support. Grant officials must approve expansion of TRiO services to the other campuses and expansion is being considered.

14.	Vocational Support/Perkins The new Coordinator of Vocational Support Services, Wendy Tamayo, is scheduled to start May 9th.
15.	Division Chair Highlights The LVN program regained Approval Status from the Texas Board of Nursing and can now accept a new cohort of 40 students for the fall 2023 term. To date, 54 applications have been received. The EMS program conducted a successful field day on the Wharton campus on 4/22/23. The Allied Health division received $511,000 from the Johnson Foundation Grant to purchase instructional equipment. An application for a grant through the Gulf Coast Medical Foundation will be submitted for an Immersive Interactive Room for EMS on the Wharton campus. A retirement party for Paul Spellman, Joy Wind, and Phyllis Appling is scheduled for tomorrow in the BOT conference room. Construction for a circle drive in front of the Fine Arts building has started. The project is being funded by the WCJC Foundation. Hector Weir submitted a proposal to host the 2023 American Studies Association of Texas (ASAT) conference on the Wharton campus in November; the proposal was approved by the Executive Cabinet. The Paralegal program had a reaccreditation site visit by the American Bar Association (ABA) on April 2-4. The team found no compliance issues but did state the need for program target marketing and increased brand marketing for the College in the Fort Bend community. The team has recommended the program for re-accreditation. The ABA Commission meets at the end of April; however, the final decision will be made when the House of Delegates votes in August.
