

Administrator Breakfasts

An Information and Discussion Group to help navigate special education programs, meetings and much more!

Dates: 12/10/13, 2/11/14, 4/8/14
Time: 7:30-9:30 a.m.
Location: Mid-Valley Special Education Cooperative (MVSEC)
1304 Ronzheimer Ave., St. Charles,
60174 (Door 5, Room 4)

Each session will have a brief overview of the legal implications for the session topic, followed by a group discussion of issues, concerns and questions.

Participants may attend one or all of the sessions. Participants attending all sessions will receive the book, A Principal's Guide to Special Education, published by the Council for Exceptional Children.

Anticipated Future Topics (depending on needs of the group):

- ❖ School Actions (or Inactions) that Can Result in Court Action
- ❖ Individualized Education Programs (IEPs): Facilitating effective and parent-friendly meetings
- ❖ Free and Appropriate Public Education (FAPE): How does it work in the schools?
- ❖ Evaluations and Eligibility
- ❖ Placement Decisions and the Least Restrictive Environment: What does it mean in your school?
- ❖ Disciplinary Procedures for Students with IEPs
- ❖ Due Process Procedures and Preparation
- ❖ 504 Process and Procedures

These sessions are open to all administrators, particularly general education administrators, in the Cooperative's five member districts (D101, D301, D302, D303, D304) who would like to improve their responsiveness to special education concerns.

Please RSVP to Karin.Alber@D303.org or 331-228-4873.

MV
MID-VALLEY SPECIAL EDUCATION COOPERATIVE

www.mvse.org

