

Partners For Success®

A family support worker in your school is a trusted partner who helps families with stabilizing resources and other support to promote school success.

Family support workers take a strengths-based approach to improve communication between home and school. Their role is to help parents and students navigate barriers to home and academic success.

In ISD 917, a family support worker walks alongside families and students at DCALS North as they establish and meet goals that promote long-term achievement.

The data below highlights the achievements of families and students in ISD 917, plus the holistic resources and referrals the family support worker provided during the 2022-2023 school year.
