Corporal Punishment

The use of corporal punishment in any form is strictly prohibited by MESD. No student shall be subject to the infliction of corporal punishment.

Corporal punishment is defined as the willful infliction of, or willfully causing the infliction of, physical pain. Corporal punishment does not include the use of physical force authorized in ORS 161.205 (2), (4) or (5) for the reasons specified therein, or physical pain or discomfort resulting from or caused by participation in athletic competition or other such recreational activity, voluntarily engaged in by a student.

No teacher, administrator, other MESD personnel or MESD volunteer shall subject a student to corporal punishment or condone the use of corporal punishment by any person under his/her supervision or control. Permission to administer corporal punishment shall not be sought or accepted from any parent/guardian, person in a parental relationship or MESD official.

~~A staff member is authorized to employ reasonable physical force upon a student when, only to the extent that the application of physical force is consistent with ORS 339.285-339.303 and is not in his/her professional judgment, the physical force is necessary to prevent a student from harming self, others or doing harm to MESD property, and is not corporal punishment as defined in ORS 339.250(9) Physical force shall not be used to discipline or punish a student.~~

A staff member is authorized to employ reasonable physical guidance and restraint upon a student only to the extent that such force is consistent with ORS 339.285–339.303 and is not corporal punishment as defined in ORS 339.250(9). Physical guidance and restraint shall not be used to discipline or punish a student. The use of any restraint or seclusion as a behavioral intervention shall be governed by Board Policy JGAB – Use of Restraint and Seclusion and its accompanying administrative regulation.

A staff member found in violation of this policy may be subject to discipline up to and including dismissal. A volunteer found in violation of this policy by administration may be subject to sanctions and/or prohibited from volunteer service in the MESD.

The superintendent shall inform all staff members and volunteers of this policy.
