

3 Year Contract for
Rebekah L. Larson
Professor of Nursing
Full-time Faculty at Collin since 2017

Education/Experience

- Masters of Nursing Science, University of Arkansas Medical Sciences, Little Rock, AR, 1997
- Licensed, Registered Nurse, 1980

Professional Development and Publications

- Initiated, "Music Therapy in Collin College Hospital Lab," Fall 2017
- Initiated Research Study, "Students will gain educational knowledge in hearing physiological sounds during skills testing that can be applied in the clinical setting when caring for actual patients," Spring 2017
- Completed course work, Certified Family Nurse Practitioner, Texas Woman's University, Denton, Texas, Summer, 2017
- Attended, "Nuts & Bolts for Nurse Educators," Minneapolis, MN, Summer 2019
- Attended, "Examsoft Assessment Conference," Fort Lauderdale, FL, Summer 2018
- Attended, "Examsoft Workshop, Faculty Development," McKinney, TX, Fall 2018
- Attended, "Emergency Triage," Texas Health, Fort Worth, TX, Summer 2018

College Service and Student Support

- Served, Search Committee, Director of Nursing, Fall 2018
- Serve, Nursing Center of Excellence Committee, Spring 2019-present
- Serve, Curriculum Committee, Secretary, Fall 2018-present
- Serve, Undergraduate Interdisciplinary Student Research Committee, Spring 2018-present
- Serve, Foundation Scholarship Committee, Spring 2018-present
- Serve, Health & Safety Committee, Spring 2019-present
- Served, Welcome Squad, Spring 2019
- Serve, Health & Wellness Committee, Fall 2019-present

Leadership and Awards

- Served, Coordinator of Collin College Hospital Lab, Fall 2017-Fall 2018
- Chosen, Pin Presentation, Summer 2018
- Chosen, Alpha Delta Nu, Faculty Address, Spring 2018