Dear Administrators,

It is with regret that I am writing to you today to tender my resignation from Browning High School girls soccer coach. I am unable to coach as a result of needing to focus on my family. I have four children and over a period of time I've realized that I need to devote more time to my two younger daughters that are in 3rd and 5th grade. My daughters have mentioned to me that I'm too busy and it made me realize that I need to focus on them. I do appreciate the opportunity and offer my best wishes for its success.

Sincerely,

Zebah Burdeau
