COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES

~~Participation in commencement exercises is not an essential component of education and therefore not a right similar to the right to receive an education. A student shall be allowed to participate in graduation activities and ceremonies only if he or she complies with the rules and regulations pertaining to graduation that are adopted by the Board.~~

A student must ~~who has~~ satisfactorily completed all coursework requirements for graduation and satisfy all but has failed to meet applicable state testing requirements in order ~~shall be allowed~~ to participate in commencement activities and ceremonies. [See EI, EIF]

~~A graduating senior who has been placed in a DAEP during the spring semester of his or her senior year shall require approval of the campus administrator to participate in commencement exercises. The building administrator shall consider the factors surrounding the placement and shall enforce the restriction based on the seriousness and timing of the offense along with any other considerations necessary to preserve the decorum and safety of school operations and commencement exercises.~~
