Principal's General Narrative:

We have had a very good first week of school. Teachers are easing into the use of C-Scope and Success Maker and exploring ways in which these new resources can best help them to help our students. Mr. Maldonado is working to help get the list serves operable to facilitate communication with parents and community members. I believe we are on track to have a very successful year.

The high school and junior high faculty, as always, would like to express our appreciation for the support and leadership from the school board, superintendent, and everyone in the central office. Thanks.
