

Recommendation for Amanda Peterson – New Teacher of the Year

It is with great enthusiasm that we recommend Amanda Peterson for the New Teacher of the Year award. In her short time with us, Amanda has demonstrated an exceptional ability to engage students, foster a positive classroom environment, and inspire a love of learning.

From day one, Amanda has gone above and beyond to connect with her students, recognizing their individual strengths and needs. She creates dynamic and innovative lesson plans that not only meet curriculum standards but also make learning enjoyable and meaningful. Her ability to integrate technology, hands-on activities, and differentiated instruction ensures that every student feels valued and empowered.

Beyond her classroom, Amanda is a dedicated team player, always willing to collaborate with colleagues, share ideas, and support school initiatives. Her enthusiasm and professionalism have already made a lasting impact on our school community. She is admired by students, respected by parents, and appreciated by fellow educators for her passion, creativity, and unwavering commitment to excellence.

For these reasons, we strongly believe Amanda Peterson is more than deserving of the New Teacher of the Year award. She exemplifies the qualities of an outstanding educator, and we are confident that she will continue to make a significant difference in the lives of her students for years to come.

Sincerely,

Bonneville High Administration

Rich Murray- Principal

Steve Short- Assistant Principal

Cari Fredrickson- Assistant Principal

Marc Welch- Assistant Principal