"SERVING OUR COMMUNITY WITH PRIDE"

A School Resources Officer (SRO) is a fully sworn Police Officer. The School Resource Officer duties include but are not limited to assist the school administration in maintaining a safe and secure environment. School administrators benefit from the School Resource Officer training, knowledge and experience is handling situations involving possible weapons violations or in the identification of controlled dangerous substances. The School Resource Officer provides a highly visible presence to deter or identify trespassers on campus. In addition, School Resource Officer provide a service to the surrounding community by addressing concerns such as loitering, speeding or loud car radios. The students when going to or from school often generate these types of community complaints.

School Resource Officers are responsible for investigating violations of criminal law and when appropriate make arrests. A School Resource Officer sworn duty to enforce the law does not contradict the need for the School Resource Officer to be positive role model. The presence of School resource officers in schools has become an important part of the duty to protect children on campus. Statistically speaking, the effectiveness of School Resource officers is firmly established. School Resource Officers are very much more than an armed security presence, they are fully integrated into the fabric of the school environment and any school would benefit from having one. Sworn law enforcement officers with the appropriate skills and backgrounds are the most reliable and most secure option for school safety and security.

These offenses could be enforced either by referring to the administration for minor offenses, Issuing citations for mild offenses or arresting the offenders.

Off duty Officers are more costly and different officers could be assigned to the district on a daily basis. Off Duty officers will be schedule as they are available and the results could be mix. An Off duty officer will not be driving a marked police vehicle and would not be caring a long rifle.
