

Marzano Leadership Academy
2 Board Credits
Dates: June 13, 14, 15, 2012

This 3-day Leadership Academy provided professional development for district and school leaders in the skillful use of the Marzano Art and Science of Teaching Protocol for instruction. Instructional leaders learned how to use the protocol, provide meaningful feedback, and support teacher growth through a sustainable professional development process.

Topics for June 13: Overview of the Art and Science of Teaching Protocol: Lesson Segment Involving Routine Events

Participants were shown the 'Big Picture' of the overall framework and went in depth into Design Questions 1 and 6. Video Practice enabled participants to become familiar with the process and to begin practicing providing feedback to teachers.

Topics for June 14: Lesson Segments Addressing Content:

Participants were shown Design Questions 2, 3 and 4. Video practice enabled participants to become familiar with the processes and to begin practicing providing feedback to teachers.

Topics for June 15: Lesson Segment Enacted on the Spot

Participants were shown Design Questions 5, 6, 7, and 8. Video practice enabled participants to become familiar with the processes and to begin practicing providing feedback to teachers