Good afternoon,

I appreciate all of the support and dedication that you put into the athletics program. Per our conversation this afternoon, I will not be able to attend the parent meeting for golf on August 1st. For this reason I will not be able to coach golf this season. I totally understand that it is imperative that the head coach be present at this meeting, unfortunately the dates will just not work this year.

I wish you and the entire athletic department the best of luck and I truly appreciate the opportunity that I was given to coach. I consider it an honor and a privilege.

All the best and GO INDIANS!

Sincerely,
Brian Harrell
