

Igiugig School Monthly Site Report

To: Ty Mase, Superintendent
Date: 01/27/20

From: Tate Gooden, Head Teacher IGI

Notable Events: Alaskan artist Ann Luthy spent a week in Igiugig as an artist in residence. Students and community members created self-portraits with Ann's guidance. The week was capped off with an Art Showing and Poetry Night. Igiugig school was a January attendance winner. The basketball team travelled to Kokhanok and Naknek and proved to be formidable going undefeated. Igiugig Student government held their annual Valentine's Dinner. The theme this year was down home America. Chicken Fried Steak, mashed potatoes and gravy, green beans, chocolate cake, and apple pie. It was also an evening of Karaoke....a few brave souls regaled the audience with melody.

Personnel: Tate Gooden – Secondary; Charlie Gifford – Elementary- on medical leave; AJ Gooden – 0.5 PK/Generalist; Levi Tinney - 0.25 Elem. and subbing for Charlie; Betsy Hostetter – Class/SPED Aid; Molly Carlson – Tutor; Ida Nelson – Cook; Janitor – Olga Zackar.

SBS/Curriculum Progress: Students have just completed the MAPS assessments. The assessments took over 1.5 hours per day to complete.

Technology Progress: Our technology has performed quite well save for a few machines that have shown their age. Network connectivity has been nearly seamless.

Facility Update: Olaf arrived in February to install photo cells on the parking lot flood lights. He also serviced the schools floor machine which saves a lot of time for our custodian when mopping the gym.

LSAC: Meeting held on February 19th. Minutes attached.

Volunteer Report: Thanks to Randy Alvarez for donating time and resources in teaching HS students how to hang fishing nets. Aiden and Keilan hung a 25 fathom subsistence net to be raffled at the Kokhanok Carnival. Thanks to Jeff Bringhurst and Karl Hill for donating cork and lead lines.

Trips Planned – No School Trips planned at this time.

Pupil Attendance: Enrollment for K-12 = 18 students. PK enrollment – 5 students.
