

September Report:

Larisa Miller
Denfeld Highschool

- 9-16-24 Deadline to drop a class for a study hall
- 9-27-24 - Hi Day (Traditional welcome of the incoming Class of '28) Wear Maroon/Gold!
- 9-30 through 10-4-24 - Homecoming Week Student government is working on this, trying to get everything to fit in assembly!
- Hunter license-keep changing-excused absences in total of two days each month is the max
 - Main point is for families to know the engagement matters-this is new and going to be continued to work on
 - Diverse types of aspects, parents not in the picture for academics to excuse people, outside clubs and sports in the community.
- Senior officers' application is open
- Clubs trying to find times to meet without win
- BSA is during lunches
- Multicultural room- need decorations, and make it more known
- Step team officially started, hopefully performing at the homecoming-Student led
- League of women voters is now at Denfeld, for the first time, advocating for younger voters
- Shoreliners have started practicing for the homecoming half time everyone is welcome to join
- Student Involvement in the DTA discussion?
- Dash- great NYLC (National Youth Leadership Conference) connections, they working on a food scarcity project- working on a podcast and article to be involved in.
- The football team is 3-0 so far, East game is this Friday, theme is neon
- 10-31-24 Senior Grad Pics due
- Sept 20th homecoming court nominations end
- Open Forum for students once a month