Positive Talking Points:

Pillar #1: Teaching, Learning, and Relevance

- Summer PD is up and ready to go. Teachers had the flexibility to choose how they want to spend 3 PD days based on a catalog of options, along with other conferences they find in their content area. Below is a summary of the choices teachers made:
 - Content Learning:
 - Math Camp:
 - K-3: 9 teachers
 - 6-12: 7 teachers
 - Reading Camp:
 - 4K-5: 9 teachers
 - Grade-Level Reading Updates: 7 teachers
 - Specific SPED Training with MLSS/aimsWeb/etc...: 7 teachers
 - Working with Children
 - Non-Violent Crisis Intervention: 25 teachers
 - Bal-a-Vis X: 6 teachers
 - Trauma-Informed Instruction: 3
 - Book Studies: 14 teachers
 - Technology:
 - Working with SchoolAI: 12 teachers
 - Canvas Updates: 18 teachers
 - Specialized Certifications:
 - Ropes Course: 4 teachers
 - WoodCock Johnson (SPED): 1 teacher
 - AP Institute: 1 teacher
 - CTE Summit: 2 teachers
 - Individual Plans:
 - Curriculum work: 48 teachers
 - Conferences: 3 teachers
- In addition to all the PD teachers chose, I am actively developing the August sessions, refining our assessments, updating curriculum documents, preparing for an ESEA Audit, finalizing end-of-year data, and what feels like so much more.

Pillar #2: The Whole Student

- Data for students will be presented on June 17th

Pillar #3: Communication and Community Engagement

Pillar #4: District Workforce

- Our Teacher Mentors have been chosen and planning has begun for our New Teacher training.

Pillar #5: Operational Excellence
