Everyday Heroes

Our school held an assembly called "Everyday Heroes." Representatives from local law enforcement, the fire department, EMS, Fish and Wildlife, and seasonal wildland firefighters shared what they do, how they respond in emergencies, and how students can stay safe and make smart choices. This was an unique opportunity to learn how teamwork, courage, and service play a role in protecting others — every single day.

May cultural day and mini pow-wow

On May 30th we held our last cultural day of the year. On this day we also held our first annual mini pow-wow this year at Browning Elementary. The event was planned and coordinated by Amanda Whiteman, Samantha Grant to celebrate our culture and give students a feel to participate in a pow-wow. Students experienced grand entry, the flag song, victory song, dancing and the honorings of staff members. Drumming was provided by the Browning Middle School drum group led by Stan Whiteman.

Spring concert

Music teacher Jasmine Little Plume planned and coordinated the spring concert. This year's concert not only included songs, but also included a talent show where students showcased their unique skills.

Instructional Coaches Report by Arlene Wippert and Melissa Henderson

May was a very busy month. Our students were given the Spring Benchmark assessment.

2nd Grade Reading

There was a 16% decrease in tier 3 and a 25% increase in tier 1 for 2nd grade. Forty students made the grade level norm in oral reading fluency and overall the strength for this cohort is reading comprehension.

2nd Grade Math

2nd grade decreased tier 3 by 26% and increased tier 1 by 24% for math. Their strength was scoring well in number comparison Fluency triads.

3rd Grade Reading

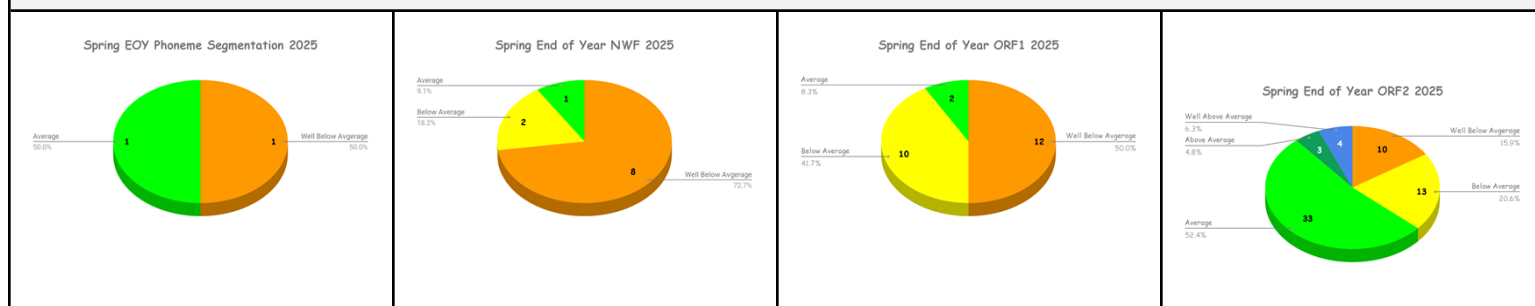

There was a 1% decrease in tier 3 and a 10% increase in tier 1 for 3rd grade. Forty-three students made the grade level norm in oral reading fluency and overall the strength for this cohort is reading comprehension.
