W005748-051826	5/18/2026	Christopher King	Wayne Sorrels	5/18/2026	Full Release	1. Please produce a copy of any bullying records sought by Sarah Fields from March 30, 2026 to present. 2. Please produce a copy of your responses to such request. This should be a quick and easy task, as the information is fresh off the presses so to speak, as you can see by the attached photo, Reporter Fields said she was going to issue the request and provide me the responses. I haven't received anything yet, and I believe she would have obtained information, as she further stated that she "has contacts" sufficient to get her Courtroom access as a Journalist prior to the official pronouncement on May 26, 2026, see attached. While waiting in my car, another vehicle pulled into the parking spot beside me on the driver's side. A male driver exited the vehicle and went inside the building shortly after, and I followed inside as well. There was a female passenger remaining in the passenger side. When I later returned to my car, I noticed the male was still inside the building, but the female had moved into the driver's seat. When I looked in her direction, she immediately ducked her head, which struck me as odd at the time, although I did not realize anything had happened until I returned home.

and did not notice the damage immediately. Once I arrived home, I discovered a significant dent and scratching on the lower portion of the driver's side door that absolutely was not there earlier that day. This is a brand-new loaner vehicle with no prior dents or marks, and I had not driven anywhere else before coming to the school. Based on the positioning of the vehicles, the damage, and the behavior I observed, I am very confident the vehicle parked next to me struck my car with their door. The dealership has reviewed the damage and believes this may qualify as a hit-and-run incident. They also suspect the individual may have attempted to wipe away paint transfer marks afterward due to the nature of the scratches. I have already informed the dealership of the incident; however, they advised me that security footage would be necessary in order to file a formal report. I contacted the school and was informed that footage cannot be released unless approved by the district. I am respectfully requesting assistance in obtaining or reviewing any available camera footage from that area around 3:00- 3:25 PM yesterday [5/18/2026]. This incident may result in significant repair charges being placed on me for a vehicle I know was undamaged prior to arriving at the school. I truly appreciate your time and any help you may be able to provide regarding this matter. Please let me know if any additional details are needed.
