A Note from the Principal

We have had an amazing start to the school year! Fall is in the air, the leaves are vivid colors, crisp blue sky overhead.

I would like to remind you that Fort Vannoy is a Title I school. As a parent, you have the right to request information regarding the professional qualifications of your child's classroom teacher. We are fortunate that there is a tremendous amount of parent support and involvement at Fort Vannoy. My door is always open. Feel free to drop by anytime with a question, concern, or just to say "Hi."

 Alicia Timbs

Dear Fort Vannoy Parents and Guardians,

I am Nadyah Field, the Family Advocate for Fort Vannoy Elementary School. The purpose of the Family Advocate is to help students overcome barriers to success. I will help students acquire jackets, clothes, school supplies, hygiene supplies, glasses, dental appointments, haircuts, etc. I will also advocate for the students. For example; helping them get testing or counseling, acquiring birth certificates, arranging for extra tutoring and other related services. If you have any questions that I can help you with, please don't hesitate to call me. On a side note: If you are cleaning out your child's closet we are in need of BOYS pants sizes 7/8, 10/12 & 14 and GIRLS pants sizes 7/8 & 10 and leggings of all sizes.

Sincerely,
Nadyah Field

NO MORE CLIPPING

When you see this Box Tops label on packages, use the NEW Box Tops app to scan your store receipt and our school will automatically earn Box Tops for any participating products purchased. Box Tops are still worth 10¢ each for our school. There's no need to clip Box Tops labels or send them to school!

STILL HAVE TRADITIONAL BOX TOPS CLIPS?

Yes, you can still turn them in to school! Box Tops clips can still be found on many products. Clip them just like you always have and send them to school—just make sure each one has a valid expiration date! Our school's Box Tops Coordinator needs to submit them this month in order for them to count toward our fall earnings check.

SHORT NOTES

Promises matter

Before you promise your child something—for instance, that you'll take him to the playground—make sure you'll be able to follow through. This teaches him that he can count on you, and he'll learn to keep promises, too. Tip: If needed, include contingencies. ("We'll go as long as it's not raining.")

Speak up about allergies

Family gatherings are good opportunities for your youngster to speak up about food allergies, whether she has one herself or is being considerate of others. She might ask the host if a casserole contains eggs or tell a cousin who's allergic to dairy that there's milk in the mashed potatoes.

Boost working memory

This activity improves your child's working (or short-term) memory. Have him close his eyes while you draw three emojis (cupcake, sun, leaf). Let him study the paper for five seconds, flip it over, and try to name the emojis. Repeat the activity, adding one more each time. How many can he remember?

Worth quoting

"When you see someone without a smile, give them one of yours."
Zig Ziglar

JUST FOR FUN

Q: What's black and white and black and white and black and white?

A: A penguin rolling down a hill.

An atmosphere of learning

When families create a supportive learning environment at home, children are more successful in the classroom. Use these tips to make your home a great place for your youngster to learn.

Stock up

Fill your house with items your child can use to explore and investigate. Visit the library regularly so you always have plenty of books. Have her set aside a drawer for math and science supplies (ruler, measuring cups and spoons, food coloring, seeds). Also, display a map or globe—when she reads or hears about a place, she can discover where it's located.

Build on interests

Notice what your youngster is into, such as dinosaurs or music, and help her learn more about it. Read nonfiction books or watch documentaries together. Let her make a hallway gallery based on her interests. She could create and hang up posters to share interesting facts and photos with family members.

Learn together

Learn something new as a family. You might work on American Sign Language and then practice together. Or learn to code or knit. You'll enjoy a new hobby as you expand your knowledge. Also, plan special nights where you play board games. Try ones that build language skills (Scrabble, Boggle) or involve math or logic (Monopoly, chess).♥

I'm thankful for...

What is your family grateful for? Try this idea to find out—and teach your child about gratitude.

Pick categories. Choose six crayons, and assign each color a category. Example: red = person, blue = place, green = object, yellow = food, orange = animal, purple = your choice. Place the crayons in a bowl, and give each person a sheet of paper.

Draw and write. Take turns selecting a crayon, drawing a heart on your paper, and writing something you're grateful for that matches the category. Your youngster might write "My Aunt Amy" in red and "Macaroni and cheese" in yellow.

Share. Once everyone has a heart of every color, read what's in your "hearts" to each other. Display the papers for a nice reminder to be grateful all year long!♥
