

Site Report – IGI – September, 2024

To: Superintendent Kasie Luke
and LPSD School Board Members

From: Stephanie Canning, Head Teacher

Photos & Description of Activities and Events

Personnel Update

Returning to IGI: Gabbie Cruz (K-3) Stephanie Canning (Head Teacher, 3-5) Andyn Gunlik (Aide, Yup'ik teacher) Anthony Wassillie (Aide, Custodian)

New to IGI: Nathan Moore (Secondary) Heather Green (KU student teacher 3-5)

We still have many open classified positions that certified staff are having to fill in for (PE, Night Gym Aide, Preschool)

Classroom Highlights

Students and teachers are excited to have started Yup'ik lessons with our onsite language coordinator, as well as Yuraq.

LSAC Activity

LSAC will hold its first meeting of the 24/25 school year on Thursday, October 3.

Community Engagement

Quyana to Christina Salmon for filling in for cook last week and Kath Rutherford (South Central's Behavioral Therapist) for stopping by circle time and starting our FY 25 relationship. Quyana to all those who have welcomed our new staff members with open arms!
Professional Development
PLCs begin next month, and with it comes the task of providing coverage without subs. Ms. Cruz is currently teaching a course with UAA, our very own professor! Ms. Cruz and Ms. Canning are both currently enrolled in courses needed to become certified under the Alaska Reads Act. Ms. Canning just finished her course on coding, gaining more insight for teaching our new tech. standards.
Pupil % Attendance K-12
Pupil attendance was about 98% for September.
Student and Staff Safety
All certified and classified staff will participate in CPI training in the coming months.
Other