Hi Ericka,

No, I researched it and they don't need a written contract. There is an exemption in Local Government Code 271.062 that says a contract executed for legal services does not need to be in writing.

I hope this helps. Let me know if you need anything else. Thanks.

Hi Jeremy,

I was at San Eli yesterday conducting WTs and I did a WT for the RFQ they did for legal services since the prior attorney past away. The CFO did not know if there was a signed contract but he didn't think it is necessary. In any case, he is going to ask the Superintendent to see if there was one signed by both parties. Is one required?

Thanks,
