To Whom it May Concern,

I am honored to nominate Mrs. South, an exceptional Kindergarten teacher at West Haven Elementary, for the I Love Teaching Award. Mrs. South has devoted 31 years to teaching, with 20 of those years spent at West Haven Elementary. Her passion for education, especially her love for teaching children to read, has made her an invaluable asset to our school community and an inspiration to all.

Throughout her career, Mrs. South has demonstrated a commitment to fostering a love of learning in her students. Her ability to teach reading in an engaging and supportive way has changed the lives of her students, providing them with a strong foundation that sets them up for academic success. Her unique approach to teaching reading goes beyond the phonemic awareness; she instills excitement and curiosity in her students.

Mrs. South's classroom is a warm, welcoming space where every child feels safe and supported. She is known for her patience, kindness, and the personalized attention she gives each student. Her dedication to her students is reflected in her ability to recognize and nurture each child's unique strengths and challenges. Mrs. South goes above and beyond to ensure her students feel confident and capable, celebrating their progress every step of the way.

Mrs. South plays a vital role in our school's community. She has earned the respect and admiration of her colleagues, parents, and students through her dedication and compassion. Parents often express how their children come home excited about what they learned in Mrs. South's class, eager to read and discover new things. Her influence extends beyond the classroom.

Mrs. South's passion, dedication, and talent make her an ideal candidate for the I Love Teaching Award. Her 31 years of service and 20 years at West Haven Elementary stand as a testament to her enduring impact on the lives of her students and her community. I wholeheartedly recommend her for this award, as she exemplifies what it means to truly love teaching.

Thank you for considering Mrs. South for this award.

Sincerely,

Courtney Geisler,
