LITERACY LEADERSHIP SUMMIT | MAR 14-16, 2016

s educators across the nation face the challenge of meeting rigorous standards for college readiness and next generation assessments, the question persists: How can we empower our teachers and provide struggling students with effective literacy intervention in the digital age?

Houghton Mifflin Harcourt Is dedicated to leading the way to literacy and inspiring curious, lifelong learners in the evolving education landscape. This Literacy Leadership Summit will address the real, tangible strategies necessary to raise reading achievement for all students and transform school performance. During this agenda, we will discuss the effects of positive engagement, unpack technology's role in personalizing and progressing literacy intervention, and share influential teaching and learning strategies within our professional network. Each Summit participant will benefit from rich content shared by our thought leaders, and take away best-in-class professional development and technology solutions proven to drive results!

This Summit is limited to 180 participants. Register online at hmhco.com/leadershipsummits or by faxing the enclosed Registration Form. An HMH representative will contact you to arrange your air travel and hotel accommodations.

Registration Deadline: February 22, 2016

Summit registration will occur between Hotel check-in generally occurs after Every effort will be made to accommodate early arriving participants.

HMH is pleased to provide complimentary air travel, lodging, and meals for registered participants for the duration of the Summit. Incidental charges, including transportation to and from the airport and baggage fees, as well as any additional hotel nights, will be paid by the participant.

For guests wishing to arrive early or who would like to extend their stay, HMH will make every effort to arrange hotel reservations at the Summit rate. A limited number of rooms are reserved prior to and after each Summit.

Business casual attire is appropriate during the Summit. A light sweater may be comfortable in meeting rooms.

Please Indicate any additional nights on your registration form.

This invitation is a gift to your school district. By accepting this invitation, you confirm that you have obtained any approval required by your school district. Acceptance of this invitation does not obligate the attendee's district to purchase HMH materials and/or services. Estimated value of this event is $1,500.00 per person.
