TMS Board Report

1. Band and Choir Concerts: The 7th and 8th grade concerts took place on October 30th. The 6th grade concert was held on November 6th. Turnout was great on both evenings and the student performances were excellent. Thank you to Mr. Marin, Mr. Colburn, Mr. DeLonay on a job well done! Also, thank you to Mrs. Anderson for helping with the 7th and 8th grade concert.
2. 6th Grade Field Trip: On October 26th the 6th grade students toured the Farming Museum at Marathon Park in Wausau before traveling to Northcentral Technical College for an afternoon of Career Exploration Activities. They had the opportunity to tour the campus and spend some time with a Career Coach.
3. Student Council Sponsored MS Dance: Student Council hosted their first Middle School Dance of the year on Friday, November 3rd. It was well attended and a great fundraising opportunity.
4. Universal Reading Instruction Training: The Middle School English Language Arts (ELA) teachers along with Dawn Huseby, Rachel Tassler, Thersea Burzynski and Myself completed our last day of Universal Reading Instruction training. This training was offered through the Wisconsin RTI Center and is designed to help us develop ways to focus on literacy across all academic areas. The training ended with an opportunity for us to self-evaluate our current progress and collaborate on an action plan to guide our future work.
5. MS Boys Basketball season is underway. Here is the link to their schedule:
