- 7th Grade - Cartyr Seaton and Naomi Cvengros
- 8th Grade - Brianna Mathis and Parker Moore

Clubs

- The Panther Den has begun to prepare for a Veterans Day assembly in November. Students will be raising money for Folds of Honor which is a nonprofit organization that helps provide the families of fallen and disabled service members educational scholarships.
- Student Council kicked off their annual fundraiser this week. Money raised from this fundraiser will be used in a variety of ways throughout PJHS.
- The Eco-Team will be competing at the 44th annual Lake Shelbyville Eco October 22nd. This is a scholastic competition sponsored by the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers at Lake Shelbyville.

Staff Development

- Teachers attended the 5 County Institute on October 8th. They enjoyed learning about new ideas for their classrooms and hearing Joe Sanfelippo speak.

Book Fair

- The Reading Department hosted their annual Book Fair October 4th-7th. They sold over $3,3232 this year which earned them $1,200 in Scholastic bucks. The Reading Department uses this money to purchase books for each of their classrooms and the library.

Sports

- Our 8th grade girls basketball team is currently undefeated. They are 8-0 as of October 14th.
- Our boys baseball team won Regionals but fell to Tolono Unity in Sectionals 3-2 and Tolono went on to get 3rd in state.
