TL&R	Next Gen Personal Finance (NGPF) is a non profit organization that serves to provide educators with high quality curriculum resources and promotes that all students graduate financially literate. In cooperation with Montana State University, Tomahawk High School has been recognized by NGPF as a Gold Standard School for the implementation of a financial literacy course and requires successful completion of it for high school graduation. Thank you to Mr. Neu for his efforts to provide this experience to our students
TL&R/DW	Staff Inservice was held on October 29th. THS staff continued to work on Learning Target Based instruction and assessment practices.
TWS	Teen Truth conducted on October 14th. 40 high school students participated in the student leadership summit. Student ideas and solutions will be communicated with the high school PBIS team to discuss and evaluate next steps.
TL&R/TWS	Mock Interviews were conducted the week of October 18th in partnership with Tomahawk Extended Area Partners in Education (TEAPIE). This ongoing event has proven to be very beneficial for THS students in developing the skills needed to communicate effectively regarding their personal and professional backgrounds. Thank you to TEAPIE for your continued support of this activity.
TL&R	THS Choir performed the first concert of the year on October 18th. The Autumn Concert consisted of four pieces. Students are now working hard to prepare for future events and the winter concert season.
TL&R	The Construction class attended the Building Trades Fair in Rothschild on October 13th. The fair offered an opportunity for students to speak direction with industry professionals and learn about the future of the construction industry and job opportunities.
TL&R	A group of roughly 30 students attended a Nicolet Technical College campus event on October 22. Student learned first hand about future job market data and how training through Nicolet can support students to prepare for these careers. Students also toured the various program facilities.

High School Board Report 11-9-21

TWS	Congratulations to Sophomore Rachael Reilly, who qualified for the WIAA State Division 2 Cross Country Meet. The meet was on Saturday October 30th in Wisconsin Rapids. Rachael finished 64th out of 151 competitors at State.
