January 2017 Board Report

Curriculum and Campus Updates

We had a great winter break and look forward to a new year filled with learning! Our January themes are jungle, desert, and transportation. We are excited about our field trip to the city library! In addition to focusing on rhyming words, blending and segmenting, onset and rime, we will study letters Z, Q, V, Y, M, and S. In math, we will recognize and create patterns and identify one digit numerals. Over the next two weeks, we will complete our middle of the year progress monitoring, so we encourage all students to eat a healthy breakfast on assessment days to maximize performance. The Hill County Fair will take place from January 23rd- January 28th at the fairgrounds. Be sure to register online at <http://hillcountyfair.org>. We are anxious to bid on student work at the auction on Friday, January 27th at 6:30 p.m.

Professional Development

At Franklin Elementary, we set the stage for learning! This month we will create a student sensory and STEAM station for our learners. We will attend Tier II and III restorative discipline training in Austin, revise student report cards, and prepare for our second semester parent conferences.
