CRES Teachers Earn Recognition: Several CRES teachers have been recognized during the course of this school year. I'm not surprised, as you know that I think I work with the best staff with whom I've ever worked in 30 years of education. Here is a list of those who have been recognized this year, to date.. Neil Tescahl was named Assistant Coach of the Year. Stephanie Anderson and Bryan Syrstad have both been chosen as the WJY Teacher of the Week. Angie Holmvig will be recognized on April 27th at the Sourcewell Educators of Excellence banquet. Allison Larsen has been nominated, and named a finalist, for the Innovative Schools Project's Innovator of the Year. Each of these honors is very well deserved.

Pastries with Parents: On April 20, 21, and 22, the CRES PTO hosted Pastries with Parents (Formerly Donuts with Dads and Muffins with Moms). The turnout was overwhelming, with us serving well over 600 people over the course of the three mornings. We are happy to be able to, once again, open our doors to the community. We look forward to providing even more opportunities for families and the community to join us during the 22-23 school year. We have made a commitment to hosting more celebrations next year, as we know it is a source of pride that we have had to do without for over 2 years.

Kindergarten Graduation and Kindergarten Blast Off: We are in the process of planning for the graduation of our current kindergartners and for the welcoming of our incoming kindergartners. Kindergarten graduation is scheduled for 9:00am on June 1st in the Mayberry Auditorium. Kindergarten Blast Off (Formerly Kindergarten Round Up) is scheduled for the evening of August 16th at CRES. This will be the third year of the August event, which, weather permitting will be held outside in a carnival-like atmosphere.

Respectfully submitted;
