

Three Rivers School District

Code: IG
Adopted: 6/19/06
Orig. Code: IG

Curriculum Design

The district shall maintain a coordinated K-12 program that meets state standards and is based on district goals adopted by the Board of Education.

Scope and sequence, program goals, and course goals shall be developed to implement district goals as appropriate.

Grades 9-12 shall provide instructional opportunities designed to allow students to meet district and state requirements for graduation plus college entrance requirements.

The superintendent or his/her designee may excuse a student from specific programs or activities to accommodate the student's disability or religious belief.

In a situation requesting an exemption from state required programs or learning activity to accommodate a student's handicap or religious beliefs, approval must be granted by the Board.
