Spirit Days and School Connection

Our recent spirit days have continued to strengthen the sense of belonging and joy within our learning community. These events remind students that school is not only a place for learning but also a place where they are seen, valued, and connected. Ensuring that each day fosters engagement and connection is crucial for building student confidence, motivation, attendance, and academic success.

Parent-Student-Teacher Conferences - Our fall parent-teacher-student conferences were highly successful, with strong participation (90%+) and meaningful conversations focused on student growth. These conferences provided valuable opportunities for families, students, and teachers to celebrate progress, identify goals, and strengthen communication. A highlight of these meetings was the use of ClassDojo digital portfolios, where students showcase their learning and growth through work samples, reflections, and photos. This ongoing digital portfolio offers families a meaningful window into their child's progress and accomplishments throughout the year.

Fall Meet-Up at the Farm

Our recent meet-up at the farm in Albany, Oregon was a wonderful success. It was such a joy to see students and families in person, connecting beyond the virtual classroom. Students had a great time playing together, exploring the farm, and picking pumpkins to take home. Events like these strengthen our sense of community and remind us how important it is for students to build friendships and share joyful experiences together. We look forward to planning another gathering soon.
