RE: Textbook Adoptions

DATE: July 1, 2015

Attached are the recommended textbook changes for the 2015-2016 school year. As was indicated when first presented, these texts are replacing much older editions or reflect first-time purchases for new courses that were proposed and approved. These instructional materials appropriately support the current curriculum. These texts were displayed for the requisite amount of time, but there were no requests to examine them.

Please do not hesitate to contact me if you have questions.
