There are four phases with clear academic and behavioral expectations. Students move through the system when they show they can meet the requirements at a particular state over a period of time. The length of time it takes for a student to move through the continuum depends on the student's consistent use of new social and problem solving skills. As the student earns trust and demonstrates positive behaviors over time he/she will progress through the phases. Students are provided individualized behavior support plans and ongoing collaboration with parents/guardian and community service providers to aid in their progress. |
