SOSA Art Contest

The 2nd annual SOSA Art Contest opens to all SOSA students on March 17th. Unleash your creativity and show us what being courageous means to you in a drawing, painting or other form of 2-D art. Our school contest, "Be Courageous," invites students to express bravery, resilience, and boldness through their visual art. All art must be 8 1/2 " x 11 inches (letter size) or smaller, and must include the artists' name, grade, SOSA class and the title of the art on an attached slip of paper. A brief description of how the art represents courageousness is helpful, but not required! All entrants will be displayed in the SOSA art show running from March 17th through April 30th.

SOU College Tour

This month, our high school had the exciting opportunity to tour the Southern Oregon University campus in Ashland. From walking through lecture halls to exploring dorm rooms and student centers, they got a firsthand look at college life. The tour guide shared insights on academics and what makes SOU so unique. It was an eye-opening experience for many of our students. They even got to experience dining at The Hawk Dining Commons.
