

Say Something Anonymous Reporting System” (SSARS) for Becker High School and Middle School students was launched last May. This program teaches students, teachers, and administrators how to recognize warning signs and signals, especially within social media, of individuals who may be a threat to themselves or others and Say Something to a trusted adult or use its anonymous reporting system. SSARS enables school administrators and law enforcement to immediately create effective interventions and to help prevent violence, suicide, bullying, self-harm and other forms of threatening behaviors. Students received training on how to report concerns through SSARS last May and had a refresher training in last September.

Dear Parents and Guardians:

The Becker School District is committed to sustaining a comprehensive, coordinated effort to improve the overall safety and wellbeing of our students. It is essential that our safety initiatives involve parents, teachers, administrators, local law enforcement, and mental health professionals to take meaningful action that protects our students.

I am pleased to announce the district-wide launch of the “Say Something Anonymous Reporting System” (SS-ARS) for our High School and Middle School students. This program teaches students, teachers, and administrators how to recognize warning signs and signals, especially within social media, of individuals who may be a threat to themselves or others and Say Something to a trusted adult or use its anonymous reporting system. Specifically, the program educates students to:

- Recognize the signs and signals of at-risk behaviors – especially within social media
- Take every sign and signal seriously; act quickly to get help by talking to a trusted adult or
- Report it anonymously through SSARS 24/7 Crisis Center, mobile app, or website

The system enables school administrators and law enforcement to immediately create effective interventions and to help prevent violence, suicide, bullying, self-harm and other forms of threatening behavior.

Our students often are aware of the problems their peers are facing, so it is important that we empower them to know the danger signs and give them the tools to help each other with the assistance of trained and caring adults. As you know, most conversations are taking place on social media, therefore it is critical that we teach our students to be looking out for one another as these digital conversations are taking place. SSARS teaches them what to look for in text, video and photos while empowering them to act quickly to help a fellow student.

A brochure is below this message, which outlines the SSARS program. The training for High School and Middle School students will take place on May 22nd.

The SSARS program is being provided at no cost to the Becker School District through Sandy Hook Promise (SHP), a nation-wide, non-profit organization. SHP's programs are in 50 states – with over 7,000 schools and over 3.5 million students. To date, SSARS has helped stop multiple school shootings, suicides, and gun threats; reduced bullying and cyber-bullying; intervened to prevent cutting, drug use, racial conflicts, and other violent and victimization acts. We know this program will do the same here in Becker.

Sincerely,

What is the PROBLEM?

Each year in schools and communities across the United States, there are millions of youth who hurt themselves or others through verbal, physical and digital means.

These behaviors can cause youth to experience emotional trauma and physical injury, mental health or wellness issues, stress or anxiety, and/or feelings of being unsafe.

Too often the outcome results in self-harm, suicide or homicide.

THE FACTS

In a majority of these acts, youth and adults are witness to threats, warning signs or signals, especially on social media, but do nothing to intervene to help the at-risk youth. In fact:

- Approximately, 1,000,000 students reported being harassed, threatened or subject to other forms of cyberbullying (www.nveee.org/statistics/, 2016)
- 80% of school shooters told someone of their violent plans. 59% told more than one person (Vossekuil, B., et al., 2002)
- 70% of people who complete suicide told someone of their plans or gave some other warning sign (Robins, E., et al., 1959)
- A national study found that 37% of threats of violence, bullying, etc. were sent electronically and 28% used social media (Trump, K., 2015)

THE REASONS

There are many reasons why youth and adults do not Say Something when they see a warning sign or signal. They do not:

- Understand or know how to recognize warning signs and signals of at-risk behavior
- Believe a threat to be true because “they would never say it publicly if they meant it”
- Want to be labeled, stigmatized and/or possibly physically threatened as a “snitch”
- Know who to tell or “believe that nothing will be done to help anyhow”
- Think they need to because someone else will say something
