12. COMMUNICATIONS

Crystal Harmon parent of WMS student addressed the board regarding bullying policy and parent notification when student is in an incident. She also presented some ideas for change and asked if it was possible for parents to come and volunteer on the playground.

13. FOR THE GOOD OF THE ORDER

Mrs. Lisa Dickover, BES Principal shared that students and staff will be enjoying a thanksgiving meal together on November 25th. DHS Leadership students will be there also to help pick up/clean after the meal. The school held a successful well attended Trunk or Treat. She also shared that there was a great turnout for parent/teacher conferences. The literacy admin team took the opportunity to walk through each of the elementary schools and see firsthand some of the things that are being implemented for literacy.

Mrs. Janna Norton, MES Principal reported they also had a good turnout for parent teacher conferences. This year they have started a Bus Bingo to improve positive behaviors on the bus. Battle of the Books is in full swing.

Mrs. Emily Ledbetter, LES Principal recognized her staff who have stepped up to make sure all the annual festival activities still take place even though several staff members are out. Angela Winters was the staff member of the month for October. This month they are working on gratitude as a character strong trait.

Mr. Rob Holveck, WMS Principal shared that the previous week had been tough but because of the changes that have since been implemented, he has seen better behavior during lunch. He also shared that they have seen significant academic progress and credits all the hard work to his staff. The school staff will begin to collaborate and shift their focus on building better social skills to help minimize behavior issues.

Mrs. Michelle Clarno, WMS Asst Principal/AD reported that girls' basketball and wrestling is in full swing.

Mr. Craig Anderson, DHS Principal reported that he and Mr. Wilson had just attended the annual National Honor Society induction ceremony. He also shared that several DHS student clubs and/or student groups have been represented at the city council meetings where they share news and events at the student level.
