Energy Education Program Components

Energy Education, Inc. offers a comprehensive array of energy conservation services to public school districts.

Consultants who specialize in a variety of energy management areas provide detailed onsite guidance, with impact on every potential energy-saving area within the district.

For Beeville ISD, the program is projected to generate more than $1,000,000 in net savings during the next 7 years.

Copyright © 2005, Energy Education, Inc. All Rights Reserved.

This material is confidential and the property of Energy Education, Inc. and cannot be duplicated by any means (including mechanical, photographic or electronic methods), displayed, or distributed, in whole or in part, without the express written consent of Energy Education, Inc. Further, unauthorized duplication, display or distribution of this copyrighted, confidential and proprietary material is a violation of federal and state law and subject to criminal penalties and/or civil damages.