

~~E 6171 Notice to Parents Required by No Child Left Behind Act of 2001~~

~~This list of parental notice requirements is designed to help districts meet the many notice requirements of NCLB. NCLB makes it clear that schools receiving federal funds must ensure that parents are actively involved and knowledgeable about their schools and their child's education. The law requires schools to give parents many different kinds of information and notices in a uniform and understandable format and to the extent practicable, in a language that parents understand. The only notices applying to districts that do not receive Title I funds are those regarding student privacy. The notices described in this example are summarized; please see the specific NCLB section cited for the exact requirements.~~

~~Improving Basic Programs Operated by Local Educational Agencies~~

- ~~1. Teacher Qualifications. As required by NCLB §1111(h)(6)(A): At the beginning of each school year, a school district that receives funds under this part shall notify the parents of each student attending any school receiving funds under this part that the parents may request, and the district will provide the parents on request, information regarding the professional qualifications of the student's classroom teachers, including, at a minimum, the following:~~
 - ~~a. Whether the teacher has met the State qualifications and licensing criteria for the grade levels and subject areas in which the teacher provides instruction.~~
 - ~~b. Whether the teacher is teaching under emergency or other provisional status.~~
 - ~~c. The teacher's baccalaureate degree major and any other graduate certifications or degrees.~~
