1. New Classroom Innovation Partners, Inc.

New Classroom Innovation Partners will be introducing a new math program for Bowie, Bonham, and Wilson & Young middle schools. This program is called Teach to One Math; A New Classrooms Solutions Digital Math for TEKS. This program will provide each student with a comprehensive model to personalize instruction and reimagine the classroom for each campus. New Classroom uses a sophisticated, custom-developed, data driven set of algorithms to match each student to an optimal lesson each day. This first-of-its-kind technology integrates large group, small group, and individual instruction in ways that enable students to not just learn skills, but also apply them in real world contexts.

Cost for each campus will be $130,000 for total cost of $390,000 for 2019-2020.
