a. 2013-14 Student Fees Information

At the January 22, 2014 Finance Committee, the Committee members and the Administration were in consensus to bring the below 2014-15 student fees to the February 4, 2014 Board of Education Meeting.

The recommendations for 2014-15 fees are:

- Student fees remain the same at $110 for K-5 students and $140 for 6-8 students.
- Technology fees increase $5 from $30 to $35 per student.
- Lunch prices will increase by $.05 from $2.60 to $2.65, enhanced lunch will increase $.20 from $3.00 to $3.20, breakfast will remain the same at $1.50 and milk will remain the same at $.50. .
- Transportation fees will increase $10 from $175 to $185 for the first student in the family and remain the same at $150 per student for additional students in the same family. These charges are for all students riding the bus including St. Emily students. This is a cost of less than $1.00 per day or $.50 per ride.
- Increase preschool fees for typical students from $2,250 to $2,350. The snack fee of $50 for a district provided snack for all students (typical and special needs) not qualifying for free or reduced lunch will remain the same.
