

What would one see (the evidence) that would lead a person to click “strongly agree” in response to these 5 survey questions/statements?

6 The school district is very aggressive in recruiting community involvement in the school district.

22 Community members are well informed about student achievement.

35 Community members take responsibility for ensuring the school district succeeds in meeting its improvement goals.

44 This school district communicates openly about needed improvements as well as strengths.

57 Community members believe that high standards of achievement are reasonable expectations for all students.