To Whom It May Concern,

Please find my resignation letter submitted today on May 25, 2017. I feel as if it is time for me to start my life and start school in the fall and become something more in this world. My plan was to finish out the school year at the Vina Chatten School, but being by the way I was disrespected by the special education teacher here at the school. I know that waiting till the end of the year may not be a great idea being that she continue to make me feel like a slave and looks down on me like she is better than me. With that being said, I thank you Browning Public Schools for giving me this honor in letting me be an employee here for the past year and a half. My last day will be Friday, May 26, 2017.

Sincerely,

Kourtney Vaile
