

Legislative Updates

Legislative Updates

Budget Surplus Negotiations

Legislators recently held a floor session to determine how to allocate the state's current budget surplus. They reached an agreement that includes a $600 million investment in K-12 education, featuring the largest increase to the special education reimbursement rate in state history and $300 million in general school aid intended to help reduce property taxes. The agreement also includes $50 million in support for Wisconsin technical colleges.