Academics

As part of our curriculum last month we talked about the various holiday's of winter and how people celebrate these holiday's. The holiday's we talked about were Kwanza, Christmas, and Hanukkah. We studied a variety of variations of the gingerbread man story, we studied reindeers, and had a special visit from the school psychologist Belmana Ponjevic who played a game called feelings with the students, read a story, and we rolled played different scenarios together. We had a winter festival which included the students watching The Polar Express. Our preschool teacher Nicole Onofrio participated in the Irving teacher basketball game and was surprised by one of her students.

Professional Development:

We finished writing , and delivered the Smart Start Grant to The Department of Early Childhood and are patiently waiting for confirmation of receiving the grant.

The staff participated in a DCF training , FEMA training and Ms Newman and Nicole Onofrio participated in PMT training.

We are in the self study process with our NAEYC accreditation.

Operations

This preschool is coming along beautifully. We are all very excited to move in. The furniture is being delivered December 29, 2014 and we hope to have a move in date at the end of January.

Culture & Climate

We are in the process of having the signage created. We are using Executive Sign Management LLC, Mike Breault.

We are also having t-shirts and sweatshirts with Little Raiders University and the Derby arrow as part of the logo designed. We are using Blanchette Sporting Goods Inc.
