Key Takeaways

Fort Smith Public Schools Enrollment Forecast

Overall area home sales have declined over the last 2 years due to continuing inflation pressures and higher for longer interest rate conditions

Overall Enrollment could decrease the next few years due to the school system's largest grade groups in the High School grade levels graduating out over the next two years.

FSPS has 19 actively building subdivisions along with 15 future subdivisions containing roughly 850 future housing units currently planned within the area. There are currently approximately 55 homes under construction with 400 remaining vacant developed lots that are available to build on.

Fort Smith Public Schools enrollment is anticipated to decline over the next several years due to lower Kindergarten numbers entering the school system and larger grade groups graduating out in the 2024-25 and 2025-26 School Years. It is anticipated that the Fort Smith Public Schools will be at 13,765 students by the 2028/29 school year and could return to an enrollment of 14,074 by the 20233/34 School Year.
