

To Whom It May Concern,

This letter is a professional recommendation to retire Therapy K9 Millie from her career as a therapy dog at Franklin School Systems due to developed behaviors and potential health issues.

Currently due to Millie's age, behaviors unacceptable for therapy work and potential health issues, we do not believe that Millie represents any financial value as a therapy animal.

Please do not hesitate to reach out with any questions or for any additional information.

Julie@ultimatecaninetraining.com

Best regards,

Julie Case

CEO, Ultimate Canine LLC.